Statement regarding pension scheme

Pursuant to the collective agreement, an occupational pension scheme must be established when you reach eighteen (18) years of age and have nine (9) months of seniority with the Company within a period of eighteen (18) months.

If you have been covered by a labour market pension scheme in previous employments, you become part of the collective agreement scheme on labour market pension without any seniority requirements, which means that a labour market pension will be established from the first employment date, cf. however, the rule regarding the transitional scheme for recently registered companies.

In order to ensure timely creation of the labour market pension pursuant to the collective agreement, please inform whether you in previous employments have been covered by a labour market pension scheme, and please confirm this information by giving your signature and providing documentation thereof.

I hereby confirm that I previously (only one "X"):

have been covered by a labour market pension

have not been covered by a labour market pension
